PLOWMAN ASSISTS WITH MISS AMERICA PAGEANT

Lisa Plowman, 1983 Miss Shelton State, has been selected by the Miss America Pageant committee to attend the pageant in Atlantic City, September 13-17. She will watch the parades and the competition and help in any capacity needed. While in Atlantic City, she will stay with a member of the hostess committee.

Ms. Plowman represented Shelton State in the 1983 Miss Alabama Pageant and during her interview, she expressed an interest in working with the Miss America Pageant after graduation. Lisa, who is a public relations major, obviously impressed the judges with her desire and sincerity as she was contacted by the official committee shortly afterwards.

CONCERNING DECALS

Decals indicating 1983-84 parking are available in Dean Lee's office. These decals should be placed inside, on the right front windshield to comply with the regulations at the U of A. Our faculty decals will be honored in the faculty parking zones.

The University will honor our student red parking decals in the red zones only. Students will be responsible for all tickets they incure. The University will impound the car if the parking fine is not paid. University Parking Regulations are also available in Dean Lee's office.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The Greenville Fire Department in cooperation with the Alabama State Fire College will sponsor a seminar on "The Management of Hazardous Materials Incidents," Saturday, September 17, at the Beeland Park Recreation Center in Greenville.

The seminar, the first of its kind in the area, will be geared toward fire fighters, law enforcement and emergency medical services personnel. Fee is $10. For more information, call the Fire College, 348-6241.

MORE FOR YOUR MONEY

Shelton State will offer a two-part seminar entitled "Your Money Matters." The two-part seminar will be divided into two six-week sessions. The first session will focus on the principles of investing, particularly on investment strategies and opportunities for small businessmen and middle-income individuals. The main subjects covered will include stocks, bonds, mutual funds, tax-shelter investments, annuities, life insurance, and IRA/KEOUGH accounts. The second six-week section will offer discussion into stock options, commodity futures, limited partnerships, real estate, etc.

Instructor for the seminar is Winston W. Way, Jr., investment broker for Thomson McKinnon Securities, Inc., Birmingham. The first session will begin on September 12 and continue through October 17. Part two will begin on October 23 and run through November 28. The course will be taught from 7 - 9 p.m. and the fee is $25 for each session or $40 for both parts.
